HONORING JOSHUA J. MYERS FOR BLACK HISTORY MONTH.

HON. DARREN SOTO
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, February 18, 2021

Joshua J. Myers is a not-for-profit leader with over 14 years of marketing communications, fundraising and sales management experience. Throughout his career, Joshua has been a featured commentator for print, radio and television promoting health education and disease prevention.

Through his work, Joshua seeks to promote his passion for connecting people to health and wellness resources that improve their lives, especially those disproportionately affected by health disparities.

Currently, Joshua serves as the development and communications director at Hope and Help Center of Central Florida, Inc., a medical clinic with operations throughout Florida.

Joshua holds a bachelors in theatre and communications from the College at Brockport, SUNY, a Masters in Communication & Media Technologies from the Rochester Institute of Technology, and a Masters in arts management from the University at Buffalo, SUNY, at which he was the Arthur A. Schomburg Fellow. He currently resides in Altamonte Springs, Florida, and enjoys reading, cooking, fitness and the beach.
