No. Although many of the qualifications are similar, each academy operates under its own admissions guidelines. ### Who should I ask to write a Letter of Recommendation on my behalf?

It is important that the individual writing your letter demonstrates knowledge about you. While it might seem impressive to have a high level professional construct your letter, it is more important the writer clearly knows your desire to attend an Academy. Some of the people applicants typically seek recommendations from include: teachers, counselors, employers, coaches, clergy, scout leaders, volunteer organizations, neighbors, family friends or relatives.
